-----X

Plaintiff Ignacio Melendez (“Plaintiff Melendez” or “Mr. Melendez”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against Eden Palace Inc. (d/b/a Eden Palace), Palace of Eden Inc. (d/b/a Eden Palace), (“Defendant Corporations”), Emmanuel Roth aka Mendy, Yechezkiel Roth, and Simon Doe, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Melendez is a former employee of Defendants Eden Palace Inc. (d/b/a Eden Palace), Palace of Eden Inc. (d/b/a Eden Palace), Emmanuel Roth aka Mendy, Yechezkiel Roth, and Simon Doe.

2. Defendants own, operate, or control a reception hall, located at 420 Flushing Ave, Brooklyn, NY 11205 under the name “Eden Palace.”

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Emmanuel Roth aka Mendy, Yechezkiel Roth, and Simon Doe, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporations and, through these corporate entities, operate or operated the reception hall as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Melendez was employed as a cook assistant at the reception hall located at 420 Flushing Ave, Brooklyn, NY 11205.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Melendez worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime, and spread of hours compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiff Melendez appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Melendez the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he had to work over 10 hours a day.

8. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Melendez to all other similarly situated employees.

9. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Melendez and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

10. Plaintiff Melendez now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

11. Plaintiff Melendez seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Melendez’s state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

13. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a reception hall located in this district.

14. Further, Plaintiff Melendez was employed by Defendants in this district.

33. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the reception hall on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiff

34. Plaintiff Melendez is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as a cook assistant.

35. Plaintiff Melendez seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Ignacio Melendez

36. Plaintiff Melendez was employed by Defendants from approximately 2005 until on or about January 2021.

37. Defendants employed Plaintiff Melendez as a cook assistant.

38. Plaintiff Melendez regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as condiments and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

39. Plaintiff Melendez's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

40. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Melendez regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

41. From approximately February 2015 until on or about January 2021, Plaintiff Melendez worked from approximately 11:00 a.m. until on or about 11:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m., 6 days a week (typically 75 to 80 hours per week).

51. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Melendez an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

52. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Melendez, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Melendez's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

53. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Melendez (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay, and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

54. Plaintiff Melendez was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

55. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Melendez not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Melendez's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

56. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

57. Defendants paid Plaintiff Melendez his wages in cash.

58. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

59. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Melendez (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Melendez properly for his full hours worked.

60. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

61. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Melendez and other similarly situated former workers.

62. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Melendez and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

63. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Melendez and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

Plaintiff Melendez brings his FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the "FLSA Class members"), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the "FLSA Class Period").

65. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Melendez and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.
